Does Your Child Need...

- Modeling and Support in appropriate behaviors?
- Increased communication, time management, leisure, or job-seeking skills?
- Assistance with conflict resolution and problem solving?
- Help accessing community resources?

Therapeutic Mentoring

Therapeutic Mentoring (TM) is a comprehensive approach that provides consistent, structured, and one on one support to youth with a broad array of emotional and developmental conditions. TM services are provided to youth (ages 3-20), who have/need a therapist, and who could benefit from increasing communication skills, social skills, and addressing day to day challenges.

TM is a service designed specifically for your child

- TM provides opportunities for your child to learn new strategies and build positive experiences in their community
- TM provides support and coaching in following instructions, listening, asking for help, etc.
- TM models and encourages practice of skills, and celebrates progress with your child
- TM creates a positive relationship with your child while helping them reach their goals
